

Whatever time zone is decided, it's best to keep St Joe county and Elkhart county on the same time zone. However, it's best for the entire state if we were all the same time. I don't know how it will help business any if we can't figure out who's in what time zone, let alone people who are not from around here trying to do business with us. What a mess.